

PERMACULTURE DESIGN

CERTIFICATE COURSE

COMES HOME TO TASMANIA!

Jan – Feb 2008

Equip yourself with practical knowledge & life skills. Grow your own food. Design a sustainable farm or garden. Learn how to lead a self-reliant lifestyle. Qualify to consult in permaculture design solutions for others.

Professional tuition from:

Rick & Naomi Coleman
Southern Cross Permaculture Institute
www.southerncrosspermaculture.com.au

Proudly supported by:

Permaculture Association
Of Tasmania

Two Courses: 12 days teaching over two weeks

2 - 15 Jan 2008

20 Jan - 3 Feb 2008

KINGSTON (south)

SISTERS CREEK (nth west)

Includes expert tuition, hands-on experience, lunches, free camping & facilities.
Equiv. to $59 to $79/day. Single only $950, or $1710 couple ($855pp), or $2850 group x 4 ($713pp).

First ten to pay in full receive free 'Introduction to Permaculture' or 'Permaculture Two' by Bill Mollison.
Financial members of Permaculture Assoc. Tas (PAT) receive free 'Permaculture Designers Manual'.

EXPRESSIONS OF INTEREST / REGISTRATION

Please contact the convener, Della Cooper, asap:

Ph. 03 6264 3345, della.cooper@permaculturetas.org

PERMACULTURE: or 'permanent agriculture' integrates sustainable local design solutions & practical property management planning for backyards to broad-acre farms. Permaculture-designed systems harness key principles of sustainable/profitable farming, natural food & animal production, forestry, efficient resource management, education, Landcare, engineering (eg. swales), surveying, architecture, landscape planning, sustainable living & cooperative solutions to empower communities.